

A MESSAGE from PREMIER DAVID EBY

As Premier of British Columbia, I am pleased to welcome everyone to the 7th annual Day of Music, hosted by the Vancouver Symphony Orchestra (VSO) and the VSO School of Music.

Launched in 2019, this event has become one of BC's most beloved free summer music festivals. Taking place across multiple downtown venues, the Day of Music will include over seventy performances from a diverse line-up that reflects our province's multiculturalism. Having these performances also available to access digitally provides a wonderful opportunity for those outside of the Lower Mainland to join in on the festivities. This full day event is a great reminder of music's ability to transcend borders, unite and inspire, and is sure to have something for audiences of all ages and backgrounds.

I would like to recognize the organizers and sponsors who made this event possible. To everyone taking part – thank you for contributing to the vibrant arts and culture scene in BC. When we gather to share experiences, whether it's through music, art or commerce, we build stronger and more resilient communities that benefit us all.

Enjoy the music!
